

Earth Day - Keynote Address

Student Activity Sheet

Larissa Crawford

Nancy Rowe

Session: Conference Opening & Merging our Climate Justice and Anti-Racist Learning Journeys

Presenters: Nancy Rowe, Akinomaagaye Gaamik & Larissa Crawford, Future Ancestors Services

Date: April 22, 2021 - 1:00 - 2:30pm (EDT)

Pre-Keynote Activity

Before logging in to hear this keynote address, do some research to familiarize yourself with the session host and key topics.

1 Who is Larissa Crawford?

2 Who is Nancy Rowe?

3 What is climate justice?

4 What does being anti-racist mean?

5 Watch the short video Using A Lens of Ancestral Accountability \(Future Ancestors Services\) and describe what Ancestral Accountability means to you?

Further Resources

- » Future Ancestors Services: Website
- » Future Ancestors Services: YouTube Channel
- » Akinomaagaye Gaamik: Website

Earth Day - Keynote Address

Student Activity Sheet

Keynote Activity

As you are listening to this keynote address, consider the following questions to answer during or after the session.

1 Briefly describe the session:

2 What are three takeaways from this session (i.e., a new idea, inspiration, learning)?

i.

ii.

iii.

3 How do you feel after listening to this session?

4 How can you contribute to a just and sustainable future?