

EARTH HOUR

Cut the power...start with one hour!

Be part of the global campaign to support urgent action on climate change.
 Our schools can lead the way!

ACTIONS FOR EARTH HOUR

AT SCHOOL

Brainstorm with your classmates and EcoTeam – here are some suggestions:

- School assembly (music/performance), student-created entertainment – skit or play that uses no electricity
- Invite a local storyteller/First Nations storyteller/motivational speaker
- Sustainable energy projects (wind-up flashlight, radio)
- Play educational games, sing songs, play music
- View film with an environmental message
- Go outside - interpretive hike, chalk murals, or eco scavenger hunt

AT HOME

Take your ideas home for the global Earth Hour, March 28, 2015:

- Star-gazing
- Make a green action plan for home
- Tell family stories
- Make crafts using recyclable materials
- Games or singing by candlelight
- Family walk or night hike
- “Campout” with sleeping bags inside
